BEWARE AMBITION.

During the present week the Hon. W. O. Head has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky. It is his great American privilege to aspire as high as he pleases, but the majority of Louisville Democratic voters we have met believe that Mayor Head owes it to the city and to his supporters to remain at his post as Chief Executive of Louisville. His candidacy for Governor will necessitate his retirement from the Mayoralty or a neglect of the city's business. Mayor Head started out well and has named a good cabinet. His retirement would cause a disruption of municipal machinery. It is hard to see where he gets any encouragement for his gubernatorial aspirations at this time.

EVILS TO BE AVOIDED.

Last Sunday morning the Rev. Father Patrick Walsh, pastor of the Sacred Heart church, preached a sermon that sank deep into the hearts of the parents present. It was a lesson to all parents, be they Catholic or Protestant. His theme was the necessity of watching over children during vacation season. He did not object to children having lots of time to play, but he pointed out the fact that parents and guardians should know at all times where their children are and in whose company they were.

This is good advice and the parents that do not heed it are guilty of criminal negligence. This is the season of the year when the children, fresh from school take liberty for license. Boys particularly are prone to wander off to the river or to treacherous ponds. Scarcely a day goes by that one family does not lose a child in this way. Then, too, there are excursions, where young boys and girls go boat riding. Somebody rocks the boat and perhaps all are drowned.

Jumping on street cars and stealing rides into the country on railroad trains are other dangerous customs of the vacation season. Many are maimed or killed outright each season in this manner. Parents ought to see that their charges are in the house early in the evening, too. No good can come to the boy or girl who roams the streets at night.

There are plenty of healthful amusements for children during the summer months. Nearly every parish has its picnic or outing. Besides parents should take their children to the parks of Louisville. There are plenty of free parks and lots for them to see. It is not necessary to burden children with books during vacation, but to study the habits of birds, the growth of flowers, plants and trees is helpful and a delightful relaxation.

Give the children a chance to enjoy themselves, but see to it that you always know where they are and whose company they are keeping.

WHERE THE IRISH STAND.

Thus far the much mooted compromise between the Liberal and Tory parties in Parliament has failed to develop. It has been intimated that ex-Premier Balfour is willing to meet the Liberals half way, but since that would mean concessions to the Tories and nothing for the Liberals, the Irish party look askance upon any programme of compromise.

"Not a hundred party conferences will make the Liberal-Radical party budge an inch from its position," asserts the radical Nation. It is obvious that should the conference attempt any settlement not pleasing to them, Hon. John E. Redmond and his colleagues in the Irish party will turn out the Government immediately. Mr. Redmond is silent, but his Lieutenant, T. P. O'Connor, who is the intermediary between the Irish leader and the Cabinet, has this to say:

"The Nationalists have no enthusiasm for anything which might even be trotted into an appearance of wavering on the part of the Government. From the first hour of the fight the policy they have urged is one of a prompt, energetic, uncompromising fight against the House of Lords. That was the policy ultimately set forth in the historic declaration of Mr. Asquith just before King Edward's death. The moment that policy was announced the Irish party gave the Government its whole-hearted support. They will, I believe, continue that support as long as the policy of Mr. Asquith's declaration is adhered to."

It was expected that something would develop on Monday, but the expectation proved vain. Meanwhile the Irish party seems to hold the balance of power.

AD MULTOS ANNOS.

The silver jubilee of the Very Rev. Father Cronin, V. G., was a very happy event. Happy not only to Father Cronin, but to the people of St. Patrick's congregation and of the entire diocese. Father Cronin has been tried and has never been found wanting. To his people he is the Sogarth Aroon; to his Bishop he is the right hand; to his fellow-priests he is an example of zeal and energy. With a man like Father Cronin as Vicar General the diocese of Louisville will go strong. Next to being proud of his priesthood he is proud that he is a Kentuckian, and Kentucky is proud of him. May he live to celebrate his golden jubilee and many years thereafter as the wish of the Kentucky Irish American.

PINCHOT HAS THE IDEA.

Gifford Pinchot, who has done so much for the conservation of American forests, and hence to uphold the interests of the American people, has this to say regarding party lines a party leaders:

"When political parties come to be badly led, when their leaders lose touch with the people, when their object ceases to be everybody's welfare and becomes somebody's profit, it is time to change the leaders. One of the most significant facts of the time is that the professional politicians appear to be wholly unaware of the great moral change which has come over political thinking in the last decade. They fail to see that the political dogmas, the political slogans, and the political methods of the past generation have lost their power, and that our people have come at last to judge of politics by the eternal rules of right and wrong. A new life is stirring among the dry bones of formal platforms and artificial issues. Morality has broken into politics. Political leaders, trusted and trusted, find it harder and harder to conceal their actual character. The brass-bound collar of privilege has become plain upon their necks for all men to see. They are known for what they are, and their time is short. But when they come to be retired it will be of little use to replace an unfaithful public servant who wears the collar by another public servant with the same collar around his neck. Above all, what we need in every office is free men representing a free people."

Mr. Pinchot is right in this, as he has been in many other things, but his righteousness seems to have been objectionable to Secretary Ballinger. No matter what the verdict of the Congressional investigating committee is, the people believe in Pinchot.

ANSWERED PRAYER.

Here is a pointed shaft from the trenchant pen of the editor of the Catholic Union and Times of Buffalo: "Because the radical Socialists were prevented from making a demonstration in Rome last Sunday owing to wet weather, the agitators accuse the Pope of praying for rain. If the Holy Father has been asking heaven for moisture his prayers surely have been answered. Our rebellious friends should take heed. The Pope may take it into his head to pray for brimstone."

Yesterday was the one hundred and thirty-fifth anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill.

HOLY ROSARY ACADEMY.

The annual commencement exercises of Holy Rosary Academy, Ormsby avenue, near Fourth, took place in St. Louis Bertrand Hall on Thursday morning. Graduating honors were conferred on Miss Grace Belle Huber and Miss Cecil Mercedes Morthorst. Holy Rosary Academy is an old and favorite school with Louisville Catholics.

AMERICANS THROG ROME.

The number of Americans who have been received by the Pope this year is unprecedented, says the Rome correspondent of the New York Sun. Bishop Kennedy, rector of the American College, who attends exclusively to the Papal presentations, says that since Easter over a thousand Americans have been received by the Pope weekly. Seventy per cent. of them were non-Catholics.

reported as improving. A great part of the evening was spent in discussing plans for the joint outing with Division 4 at Phoenix Hill Park next Monday night. It was decided to have a country store, candy wheel and refreshment stand. Miss Daniel Dougherty and Miss Mary Corcoran will have charge of details at the park and Miss Fannie Kennedy will be the General Chairman.

A feature will be a popularity contest with Mrs. Rose Ansbach as candidate for a prize as the most popular widow, while Misses Fannie Kennedy and Emma Fisher are running as popular young ladies. All present promised to do all in their power to make the picnic a success, and to try to divide honors with Division 4.

MADE WISE CHOICE.

Miss Mary Dalton and Miss Edna Kinsella, two well known Louisville girls, went to Nazareth Academy last Saturday to take up the work of Sisters of Charity. Miss Dalton is a daughter of Mrs. Ella Dalton, of 3517 West Broadway. Her father was the late William J. Dalton, for several years Deputy Sheriff and Deputy Jailor. Miss Kinsella is a sister of Arthur Kinsella, manager for the M. S. Moses Company. Both young ladies might have attained prominence in the social world, but as in the story of Mary and Martha, the sisters of Lazarus, Misses Dalton and Kinsella chose the better part.

PRESENTATION ACADEMY.

The auditorium of Presentation Academy was filled to overflowing on Monday morning when the commencement exercises were held. The Right Rev. Bishop O'Donoghue closed the programme by conferring diplomas on the following young lady graduates: Evelyn F. Beck, Ethel M. Dupiquier, Adele E. Gast, Mary D. Hollenkamp, Edna E. O'Bryan, Anna C. Ryan, Marguerite E. Ryan, Elizabeth M. Shea and Isabella C. Shea. The exercises were interesting throughout, and each number was in keeping with the dignity of old Presentation.

ADDRESSED KNIGHTS.

New Albany Council, Knights of Columbus, had quite an interesting soiree on Monday evening. The Knights and their lady friends to the number of 300 enjoyed a very pleasant vocal and instrumental musicale. During an intermission Attorney J. J. Kavanagh, of Louisville, was introduced by Grand Knight Cody, and delivered his lecture on "The Power of Example." Mr. Kavanagh was heard with attention and received many compliments on his address.

MONASTERY DEDICATED.

Rev. Daniel McGuire, C. P., Superior of the Passionist Retreat on the Newburg road, and the Rev. Father Wilfred, C. P., returned the first of the week from Chicago, where they attended the dedication of the new Passionist Monastery. When completed it will be one of the finest in the United States. The dedicatory ceremonies were conducted by Archbishop Quigley, and were witnessed by a great outpouring of the clergy and laity.

SOUTHERN VISITOR.

Mrs. M. T. McIntyre, of Savannah, Ga., and a sister of Thomas F. Cullen, arrived in Louisville last week. Incidental to her visit she attended the commencement exercises at Sacred Heart Academy, where her two nieces, Misses Eulalia and Elsie Cullen, have been attending school for the past six years. Blincoe, Virginia C. Murphy, Nettie E. O'Brien, Flora L. Recktenwald, Anna M. Medcalf, Lauro M. Kauffer and Mary A. Spaulding. Miss Recktenwald was the salutatorian and Miss Blincoe the valedictorian. The diplomas and honors were conferred by the Right Rev. Bishop O'Donoghue, who also made a brief address.

During the exercises Attorney Thomas Walsh, of Louisville, read an original poem. At the completion of the programme a statue of the Rev. Father Charles Nerinx, the founder of the order, was unveiled in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of the institution. The visitors from Louisville and elsewhere spent a most enjoyable day on the beautiful grounds surrounding the venerable academy.

RIVERVIEW.

Riverview Park has a splendid card for next week, and with fair weather should attract large crowds. An interesting vaudeville bill has been arranged, all the performers being well-known stage celebrities and presenting original turns. Music lovers will be treated to an excellent programme, both vocal and instrumental, and the numerous amusement devices will be in full swing.

FATHER WHITE WILL VISIT.

The Rev. Father Thomas W. White, pastor of St. Frances of Rome church, expects to leave Louisville for Europe a week from tomorrow. Father White has earned a prolonged rest and expects to spend two months abroad. He will visit his native Ireland and will later go to Rome and will see the Passion Play at Oberammergau.

TOURING IRELAND.

Postal cards have been received here by many friends of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Callahan, who with their little daughter Edith are now sojourning in Ireland. Judging from the tone of the messages the visitors from Kentucky are enjoying the time of their lives. Their numerous friends in Louisville hope that all will return home in the best of health.

ADDITION TO HOSPITAL.

Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital is to have an addition whose estimated cost is $80,000. The addition will be five stories in height, and will be 200 feet long and 100 feet wide. They will first erect a parochial house at Maple and Wall streets, after which the present rectory will be converted into a home for the Sisters.

NEWPORT.

John Sheehy and bride, who was Miss Clara Brandt, will return tomorrow from their honeymoon trip and will then be at home to their friends in a pretty flat on Columbia street, Newport. Their wedding last week took place at St. Stephen's church and was one of the prettiest of those in Newport this month.

NEED CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL.

The Right Rev. C. P. Maes, Bishop of Covington, paid an official visit to Lexington last Sunday, and while there met the trustees of the two churches, St. Peter's and St. Paul's. After due conference he advised the establishment of a Catholic high school to be used jointly by the children of the two parishes.

WOMEN WHO LABOR.

There are 6,000,000 wage-earning women in the United States. One might think these figures startling, but they are reliable.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Late News That Will Interest Members Here and Elsewhere.

Another council will be soon added to the list in Colorado, where the order is making much progress. With the initiation tomorrow Louisville Council will pass the 700 mark and bring the Kentucky membership to over 3,000.

Seventy members were added to the ranks of the council at Fort Wayne, Ind., at a notable gathering and initiation there on June 5.

The card party and reception given by members at Lafayette, Ind., for the Orphans' Home was largely attended and netted about $300.

Kentucky increased 22 per cent. in total membership during the past year, and is entitled to an additional representative in the National Council.

One of the most appreciative audiences ever assembled under the auspices of Louisville Council greeted Prof. Monahan at the house here Wednesday night. His address was given the closest attention and in every way surpassed the expectations of his audience.

A new council has been established at Ashland, Ky., and started out with seventy-five charter members. John C. McCarthy is the Grand Knight; John E. Purcell is the Deputy Grand Knight; James G. Sorey is the Treasurer, and many more grand Hibernian names are to be found on the roster.

COUNTY BOARD OUTING.

The Picnic Committee of the County Board, A. O. H., continues to meet every week or as much oftener as is necessary to arrange details for the annual outing, which is to be held at Phoenix Hill Park on July 25. During the afternoon there will be such games. In the evening there will be dancing, country store, tug-of-war and the usual attractions. Thomas Dolan, who so successfully managed the tug-of-war and other athletic events on former occasions, has retired this year in favor of Martin Sheehan. Mr. Sheehan wants his Portana team to try issues with Con Ford's Limerick athletes. John Mulloy, of Division 1, is accepting entries for the Irish dancing contest. Handsome prizes will be awarded the ladies selling the greatest number of tickets. Each of the four divisions is expected to enter a lady candidate. Miss Julia May Hession is the candidate from Division 3. Division 2 also has a candidate, but her name has not yet been announced. Divisions 1 and 4 are expected to announce candidates next week.

CUPID KEPT BUSY.

Among the many who secured licenses to wed on Wednesday were Albert Hawkins and Mary Hardesty; Joseph H. Ritzma and Anna C. Baldwin; William B. Steltenkamp and Amelia Scully, and James J. Crady and Ella Francis Kamstein.
